WHY SHOULD YOU ADVERTISE IN DC VOTE'S 2007 CHAMPIONS OF DEMOCRACY AWARDS RECEPTION PRINTED PROGRAM?

Invitations for this event are sent to thousands of DC-area residents, and last year's event drew residents from every city ward, civic and community leaders, local and national elected officials, and the media. This year's event is expected to be bigger and better than ever as we honor those who have dedicated a lifetime to promoting equality.

DC Vote is the only organization advocating full-time for congressional voting representation for residents of Washington, DC, and your support will help us to continue leading the fight. We want you to have a say in business rules and regulations; issues related to taxes and other fees imposed in the District; domestic and foreign policy; and all the issues that are important to you and your family.

More than 5,000 residents and supporters braved gale-force winds during the Voting Right March on April 16, 2007, to show just how much they want to demand voting rights. This is an issue that unites citizens of the District of Columbia, and your support of DC Vote enhances your relationships with neighbors and the communities that make up Washington, DC.
